

KATIE BOUDREAU

Catering Manager

Katie went to college at St. Cloud State and graduated with a degree in Marketing and Management. Her passion for events began as she worked with Target in Events Marketing and continued her career with Target in various management roles. During her time at Target Katie spent most of her years in food service as a Bakery Manager and Cake Artist. She has shown passion for people and creating memorable events through volunteer organizations. Katie can't wait to help you and your team with future events!

Katie loves to create events and bring people joy. She is a passionate Vikings fan, loves hiking outdoors, and is up for any adventure. At home she loves spending time with her family, specifically cheering on her three kids in any sport they are passionate about! We are excited to have Katie as part of our team!
