

In today's virtual age, it's important teams stick together more than ever! The Ingredients' food service team fueled by Corporate Services is here to support your teams with our live Virtual Cooking Classes. Through this program, you and your teams will receive a live private cooking experience hosted by one of the Ingredients' chefs!

PERSONALIZATION

Looking for a unique and fun team bonding event?

We work with you to develop a personalized experience that will be best suited for your team. Additionally, teams can participate from anywhere - only a computer, internet & kitchen is needed!

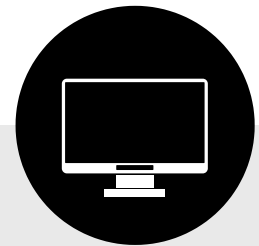

PROGRAM DETAILS

We'll coordinate a program that works best for your group.

Once you have booked your class we will provide recipe instruction cards, as well as shopping and prep, lists so participants are prepared and ready to go for the day of the event!

Wanting to skip the grocery store? You can Virtual Cooking Ingredients Kit!

CLASS DETAILS

During the class our hosts will speak to wellness and sustainability to encourage healthy behaviors at home.

Participants will also have the opportunity to ask questions and chat with our chef and hosts, making it an engaging experience.
